ARIN 49

POWERED BY PARTICIPATION

Grant Program Update

Jennifer Bly

Enabling projects that benefit the Internet community in the ARIN region

What kind of projects does ARIN fund?

- Operational and research projects
- Non-commercial in nature
- Broadly benefits the Internet community within the ARIN service region

- Aligns with ARIN's mission within these categories:
  - Internet technical improvements
  - Registry processes and technology improvements
  - Informational outreach on topics such as IPv6, Internet governance, etc.
  - Research

46,500+

Estimated number of individuals directly reached so far through ARIN Community Grant Program projects as reported by grant recipients in final project reports

15 projects funded since program launch
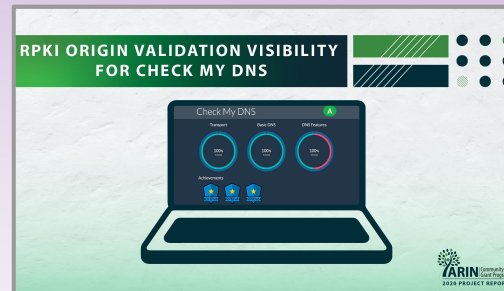

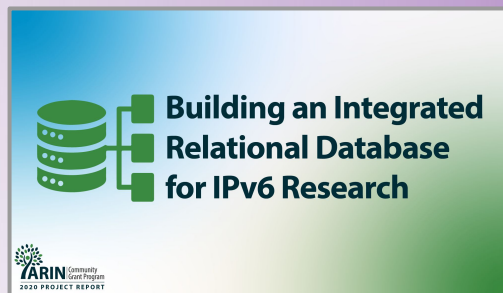

2021 Grant Recipients

Raising Awareness on Digital Standards for ARIN Region Countries

IPv6 Integrated Database - Phase Two

Virtual School of Internet Governance - Phase Two

- Update reports completed 31 March
- Final reports due 30 September
- Recipients will have a chance to share results with the community at ARIN 50

View Project Reports on ARIN Blog

Adjustments to the Application

New Section:
Outcomes, Impact, and Sustainability

New Fields:
Bios of Senior participants
Data management plan

New Option:
Request ARIN staff member reach out after submission

Apply Now

Deadline: 1 June 2022
www.arin.net/grants

ARIN | Community Grant Program

Thanks!

Any Questions?