

ASO AC Voting Procedures

Fall 2002 Election

- Cathy Wittbrodt's term expires December 31, 2002
- Four candidates are running to fill the one seat
- 3 year term: January 1, 2003 – December 31, 2005
- Vote for one candidate

ASO AC Voting

Election Procedures:

- Online voting by ARIN members opened Wednesday, October 23
- Onsite Voting “Booth” open today until 5:30 PM PST
- If you are a designated ARIN member representative you may also vote online until 2:00 PM PST
- URL for online voting:
<http://www.arin.net/elections/aso/votingbooth.html>
- Confirm online votes by 3:00 p.m. PST today
- Results tallied and announced at PPM tomorrow morning.

ASO AC Candidates

- William Kyle Hamilton
- Tanya Hinman
- Uchenna Ibekwe
- Mark McFadden

Candidate Bios and Statements of Support:

<http://www.arin.net/elections/aso/asoacbios.html>

Kyle Hamilton

<http://www.arin.net/elections/aso/whamilton.html>

- 2001 October-Present: Apollo Tech., Director of CGI. Organized groups of people all around the globe over the Internet to work on the Apollo Project and CGI. Planned the basic outline for CGI
- Education:
 - 2000-Present Buchanan HS, Clovis , CA
 - Current Leadership student
 - Academic interests and specialization in World History

Tanya Hinman

<http://www.arin.net/elections/aso/thinman.html>

- Manager of Global IP Address Engineering for Cable & Wireless, tasks include reassignments and routing to customers
- Active ARIN member since 1998. Represents C&W in the RIPE and APNIC regions. Familiar with all three RIR's policies and procedures.
- Proposed alternative method to report utilization information in the ARIN region, now implementing it within the C&W WHOIS database.
- Entered networking field in 1996, managed IP addresses for Internet MCI

Uchenna Ibekwe

<http://www.arin.net/elections/aso/uibekwe.html>

Motivation: “Would like to be a contributor to the growth of the Internet where ARIN plays a fundamental role.”

- A senior Internet systems engineer with WorldCom and a member of International who's who IT
- Presently working to oversee WorldCom's Latin America IP policies
- Holds a degree in Systems engineering with 8 years working experience.
- Worked on several international projects which include TRW electronic voting project, World Bank tax reforms project (third World), Alcoa/HP worldwide network implementation
- A contributor to ARIN discussions for the past 4 years

Mark McFadden

<http://www.arin.net/elections/aso/mmcfadden.html>

Motivation: Using the combination of interests and background described below, I hope to serve the ARIN community on the Address Supporting Organization's Address Council

- Currently an educator in Internet technology deployment, University of Wisconsin, Milwaukee
- Routine participant in Internet standards organizations including the IETF. active participant in regional registries: including RIPE, APNIC, and ARIN
- Currently act as Secretariat for the Internet Service Provider and Connectivity Provider constituency in ICANN
- 13 years of Internet experience in public and private settings as a network engineer, ISP, consultant to ISPs, Chief Technology officer at the Commercial Internet eXchange (CIX)
- Chairperson for the RFC 2050 redrafting effort

